

SURVEY FOR PARENTS

We can truly say that:

[Score: Yes = 3, Not sure = 2, Not at all = 1]

1. We feel our child is receiving (has received) adequate counseling in high school.

Comments:

2. We have adequate financial resources, even if our child's graduation takes more than 4 years.

Comments:

3. We feel our child can take as much time as needed to graduate.

Comments:

4. We know our child has chosen (or will choose) a career that is the right fit.

Comments:

5. As students we received adequate career guidance for ourselves.

Comments:

6. As parents we are well satisfied in our own career choices, but this has no influence on their choice.

Comments:

7. We feel confident that our child's college choice will be the right fit academically and socially.

Comments:

8. As parents, we can say that we have devoted adequate time discussing our child's career options with them.

Comments:

9. We have used comprehensive assessments to help guide our child with his/her career and college selection decisions.

Comments:

10. We are confident that our child is totally aware of their behavioral strengths, interests, and also their unseen needs.

Comments:

General Comments:

Parent's Score

SCORE KEY: 20 – 30: Your child needs guidance and we can be of significant help.

31 – 45: Shaky at best. Not too late to get help.

46 – 60: Good job. Are you open to new possibilities for improving success?

Please email us with any questions and how we can help (knightsbrdg@yahoo.com). Thank you!

Knightsbridge© 2008